Dr. Grace Jones

It is with both pleasure and sadness to provide this, my last statement as President of Three Rivers Community College. I have had the pleasure to work with the College Foundation for 13 years. Together we have blazed new trails and created many milestones. Let me name a few:

- Golf and galas
- Major Gifts Campaign
- Funding to commission art for the new facility
- Underwriting the book, Open, as we completed the construction of the new facility
- Major increases in providing scholarships
- Funding for professional development
- Funding for equipment for workforce development training

I know that for all the reasons the above milestones are listed, they happened because people within and outside the college community believed in the worthy efforts. My phrase, friend-raising and then fund-raising, has been a mantra. It has been the efforts of friend-raising on the part of the College and the Foundation that brought more friends in increasing numbers over the years. Those friends have awarded the College as advocates, financial supporters and direct college participants. I believe we can count over 5,000 people as friends today.

For all we do to serve, the greatest gift has been to serve learners, our students. Over 39,000 students have attended the College in "my lifetime" (13 years). As one valedictorian stated one year, he came to be trained and stayed for an education. I have always believed that if we can get the hesitant learner into this learning community for three weeks, the learner will gain self-confidence and become a scholar. To that end, the honor society has inducted 170 members this year.

Thank you to all the stakeholders, supporters, alumni and friends.

I have loved being President of the College. I am honored to have worked with all the Foundation members, past and present.

Message from the TRC Foundation President

Dear Friends,

I am honored to contribute my thoughts to this year's annual report serving as President of the Foundation and also as a member of its Board for the past nine years. I have had the privilege of working with the generous and committed community donors, business leaders, TRCC employees and volunteers that have helped to make the Foundation a great success.

This past year, we celebrated the Foundation's 40th anniversary and reflected upon the many students we've helped through the Foundation's support. The Foundation distributed $446,395 in awards and scholarships, funded critical programs for Nursing, Manufacturing, Workforce and Community Education as well as sponsored program initiatives, the Booker DeVaughn Lecture Series, professional development, cultural and fine arts programs. Our team continues to grow the assets of the Foundation with $4.5 million under management.

We will miss our retiring board members Jeffrey Godley and Lorie Mocek and welcome the exciting new changes coming to the College, especially our new Three Rivers President, Dr. Mary Ellen Jukoski. We honor our past Foundation President and supporter, Mark Ballestrini, whose tireless commitment to the College and the Foundation have helped to make us what we are today.

Thank you for the dedication and support of all the Board Members, Dr. Grace Jones, retired TRCC President, Mrs. Betty Baillargeon, Director of Institutional Advancement, Robie Grzyb and staff.

Sincerely,

Timothy Tracy, President
Three Rivers College Foundation

OUR MISSION

The Three Rivers College Foundation is a non-profit charitable educational foundation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Connecticut and granted 501 (C) (3) tax-deductible status by the IRS. Its purpose is to support the educational efforts of the College, the staff, and the faculty. In this role, it performs many functions for the College.

Innovation

The Foundation was pleased to support Techapalooza 2014. Three Rivers Community College partnered with Eastern Advanced Manufacturing Alliance, QVCC, Regional Center for next Generation Manufacturing to provide information, shops and tours to parents, students and educators interested in exploring careers in advanced manufacturing and related technologies.

Information about water management and environmental technology programs were available, architectural design and construction management as well state of the art robotics manufacturing cell and advanced renewable energy simulators.

Cultural and Fine Arts

TRC Foundation supports a variety of Cultural and Fine Art Shows and Student Art Exhibitions that provide cultural enrichment to the college and community.

Fostering Student Success

Through the generous support of John and Mary LaMattina, funding was provided to employ an embedded math tutor 14 hours per week to support our PA-1240 courses. The tutor assisted the math faculty and worked directly with students. This support was an asset to help ensure responsive, accessible, and supportive tutoring for all levels of learners as well as many types of academic support including one-on-one, group, in-class tutoring, presentations, and skill-building workshops.

Workforce & Community Education

Workforce & Community Education students come to TRCC seeking short-term retraining to re-enter the workforce after prolonged unemployment or first-time entry into the workplace.

The TRC Foundation provided 33 students with partial funding for tuition, textbooks and/or required uniforms that were enrolled in high demand programs to fast-track students into sustainable careers. Funds were used for non-credit certificate programs.

Legacy of Giving Continues

Mark J. Ballestrini Endowment Established

The sudden passing of TRC Foundation President, Mark Ballestrini, left family, friends and the Three Rivers community with heavy hearts and tremendous loss. Mark had a compassionate heart and his commitment and dedication to strengthen the community in which he lived was evident by his work with the TRC Foundation that inspired others to follow.

Scott Donovan, TRC Foundation Board member and owner of G. Donovan Associates in North Franklin and his wife Gina, Mark's sister-in-law, established an endowment in memory of Mark J. Ballestrini. Combined with additional financial gifts from donors, the fund has exceeded $30,000.

The Mark J. Ballestrini Memorial Fund will provide financial support for Three Rivers College students through scholarships, awards or other initiatives that benefit the students and the college community of Three Rivers.

"Endowments are a way to secure financial stability for Three Rivers Community College by funding scholarships and initiatives. We are very grateful to be chosen as the beneficiary for this endowment," said Betty Baillargeon, Director of Institutional Advancement, TRCC.

The Booker DeVaughn

The Booker Devaughn Lecture Series is sponsored by Dime Bank and the TRC Foundation. The series, established by President Emeritus Booker T. DeVaughn is designed to provide an open platform for the exchange of ideas in the community. All lectures are free and open to the College community and the public.

TRC Foundation Annual

TRC Foundation celebrated forty years at the annual meeting breakfast held on June 4, 2014 at Three Rivers Community College. Featured speaker Jay Kaine of ShopRite stores introduced our scholarship recipient, Kayla Rolfe and outgoing board members, Jeffrey Godley, Lorie Mocek and Tim Tracy were recognized for their years of service.

Kayla Rolfe: In Her Own Words

"For years my goal has been to become a nurse so that not only would I have a career I love, but also so that I could give back to the community every day. I am the first in my family to go to college, and as most everyone knows college is expensive. Both my parents and I worried about how we were going to afford the six or so years of school yet to come. During my senior year in high school I applied for several of the Three Rivers College Foundation scholarships and was later awarded the Reverend David L. Cannon Liberal Arts & Sciences Scholarship, full tuition for two years. I cried. I could not be more thankful. This past academic year I was able to focus my attention on my course work rather than continue to wonder how I was going to make ends meet. I had a wonderful year filled with many opportunities. The Foundation's support has played a huge role in my ongoing journey to become a nurse, and I am extremely proud to be a part of the Three Rivers Community where such support exists."

Ways to Give

ANNUAL FUND/UNRESTRICTED GIFTS

Three Rivers Community College depends on annual, private gifts to continue to provide academic excellence, accessible and affordable educational opportunities to all. The need for support with shrinking state and federal funding is greater than ever. Gifts to the Annual Fund are unrestricted and give the TRC Foundation the greatest flexibility to meet TRCC's most urgent priorities.

Your gift will go to work to help students complete their education to pursue careers that are essential to the future of Southeastern Connecticut. Unrestricted funds allow TRCC to develop signature programs, improve facilities, support faculty development and provide essential seed money for forward-thinking initiatives.

If you have already made your gift, please accept our thanks. Attached is a remittance envelope for your convenience. Thank you.
