On behalf of Three Rivers Alumni Community, we congratulate you on your academic accomplishments and welcome you as members of the Alumni Association. Today, by virtue of your graduation, you are joining other Three Rivers alumni.

Commencement is not an ending, but a beginning. Your relationship with Three Rivers will not end today, but rather evolve into a new form. As you move with hope and courage into your new careers and continue your education, you will want to maintain close ties with your alma matter.

We are counting on you to remember your education. This is your college. Go out and distinguish yourselves, and Three Rivers and pursue your goals. Once again, congratulations and warmest welcome to the proud family of Three Rivers Alumni. Thank you.
